

Michael M. Hartlett

Michael M. Hartlett became a financial planning consultant and registered representative in February 1982. He then formed an independent financial firm in September of '82.

Michael formed The Financial Network in June 1990. The Financial Network is an independent, full service, financial firm.

Mike's personal areas of specialty are retirement and asset management. He is primarily a fee based Advisor and money manager with over 40 years of experience.

Prior to joining his current broker dealer, Cambridge Investment Research, Inc. (not affiliated with The Financial Network), he served as an Investment Adviser Representative, Registered Securities Principal and Regional Director for Financial Network Investment Corporation (an El Segundo, CA based broker dealer and not affiliated with The Financial Network). He also served as a Registered Principal and on the Advisory Council while at his former broker dealer; Invest Financial Corporation (formerly located in Tampa, FL and not affiliated with The Financial Network). Mike was also a Registered Securities Principal and Registered Representative of LPL Financial and a Registered Representative of International Assets Advisory, LLC.

You are urged to contact our office today to schedule a free consultation with Mike and discuss your specific financial goals.