

Michael M. Hartlett

In February 1982, Michael M. Hartlett became a financial planning consultant and registered representative. Mike formed an independent financial planning firm in September.

Michael Hartlett formed The Financial Network in June 1990. The Financial Network is an independent, full service, financial planning firm.

Mike's personal areas of specialty are retirement planning and asset management.

Prior to joining his current broker dealer (International Assets Advisory, LLC (IAA)); he served as an Investment Adviser Representative, Registered Securities Principal and Regional Director for Financial Network Investment Corporation (an El Segundo, CA based broker dealer and not affiliated with The Financial Network). He also served as a Registered Principal and on the Advisory Council while at his former broker dealer; Invest Financial Corporation (formerly located in Tampa, FL and not affiliated with The Financial Network). Mike was also a Registered Securities Principal and Registered Representative of LPL Financial.

You are urged to contact our office today to schedule a free consultation with Mike and discuss your specific financial goals.